

Animal Enhancement Activity – ANM31 – Drainage water management

Louisiana Criteria

This enhancement is well suited to rice growing areas in Louisiana, as water control systems are already in place. Many migratory and non-migratory species would benefit from this habitat creation. For more information on targeted species, please contact an Area or the State Biologist.